School Board Races Underway

Four Candidates File

In School Board Races

Candidates for board positions in Saddleback Valley school districts were expected to file at the Orange County Registrar of Voters' office with declarations of candidacy.

As of Monday, only four persons had submitted necessary paperwork to declare candidacy for eight openings in three areas.

Deadline for filing with the county office for the April 15 election is Friday.

Registration

Deadline Nears

For April 15 Vote

In order to cast ballots in the April 15 school board election, area residents who have recently moved into the area or changed addresses must register for the election by Feb. 20.

Additionally, registered voters, who failed to vote in the November general election, must file an affidavit to reinstall their voting privileges by Feb. 20 or their names will be removed from the register.

Further information is available at the Orange County Voters' Registration office, 1119 E. Chestnut St., Santa Ana.

Saddleback Junior College Marks Second Anniversary

Saddleback Junior College will observe its second anniversary as a district on Valentine’s Day, but the celebration of its growth and plans for future accomplishments. The success of the community college's growth from a ballot to an accredited campus is a project born complex in Saddleback Village and its interior 15-acre campus.

The next anniversary will see the college's size and students doubled in size. It was with this challenge that the college's 1967-68 president, Dr. Fred H. Bremer, recently told the voters of the district. The pioneering is still underway.

It was two years ago, on February 14, 1967, that the electorate of 48 percent of Orange County approved the formation of the college, but added that the college's tall, new location with facilities ahead.

Belmont Savings

At Belmont Savings you can receive an automatic income check each month while you earn the nation’s highest rate of interest on passbook savings accounts. It’s called Select-A-Chek. It works like this. When you open your account at Belmont Savings you simply specify how much money you want sent to you each month.

The information is given to our computer and from then on a check is sent to you automatically each month. In the meantime, all your money is earning interest for you.

Current rate of 5% on regular passbook accounts or 5.13% on funds held for a year and compounded daily, and 5.25% on special accounts in multiples of $1000 when held for 36 months.

Sure beats keeping a lot of money tied up in a checking account earning no interest, doesn’t it? Why not ask for a Select-A-Chek brochure next time you’re in.
