Souvenir of Mission Viejo's Second Annual Cinco de Mayo Fiesta, May 4, 1969
More than 7,000 people took part in Mission Viejo's Second Annual Cinco de Mayo fiesta, staged on the high school grounds by 20 community organizations and coordinated by the Mission Viejo High School PTO.

Singing and dancing were prominent in the day's festivities. Right, Mission Viejo's Raydene Hiers performs a flamenco.
Taking in the exhibit by Mission Viejo artists was a popular pastime at the fiesta.

More than 1,500 Spanish dinners were served, in addition to all the tacos and burritos eaten in this patio.

Zoological de Los Amigos was a fun spot for the younger set to pet farmyard friends.

One of the children’s favorite booths was the Cub Scouts’ sponge toss.
Diablo Stadium had a full house for the evening program which began with a bike parade. There were 99 entries in three categories with junior and senior divisions.

Cover—Grand finale of the evening was a fireworks show following the rodeo.
